

EVANGELIST BARBARA A. GOLDER

Preacher | Teacher | Author

Evangelist Barbara Golder is the First Lady of Temple Of Praise Assembly in Indianapolis, Indiana, where her husband, Bishop Donald L. Golder is the Pastor and Founder.

Lady Golder is an anointed preacher and teacher of the gospel, and she is a licensed and ordained Evangelist through the Pentecostal Assemblies of the World, Inc. Lady Golder holds a Bachelor of Science Degree in Business Administration and a Masters Degree in Business Administration (MBA).

Lady Golder is the author of three books: “By Faith There’s Hope of Joy,” “Face Down,” which depicts the vital role that prayer plays in the success of a Christian, and “Women of Travail Demon Slayers,” which teaches women how to effectively war in the spirit realm.

Lady Golder is the founder of the International Face Down Prayer Movement. Through this movement she has established prayer chapters all over the United States and other countries including Haiti, Indonesia, Canada, the Dominican Republic, Jamaica, the Phillipines, South Africa and the United Kingdom.

Lady Golder is the founder of the Alpha Omega Chi Sorority, Incorporated – a Christian Sorority designed to eradicate the increasing disparities effecting women and girls in our society. She is also the founder of the “Women of Travail,” which consists of an annual twelve week prayer and empowerment course. This course is offered nationally through online services, allowing Lady Golder to train and mentor countless women of various races, denominations, cities and states, on prayer and sanctification. In addition, Lady Golder is the President of the International Ministers’ Wives and Ministers’ Widows Auxiliary of the Pentecostal Assemblies of the World. In this position, Lady Golder plans and implements various initiatives that work to build camaraderie amongst all women within the organization on an international level.

Lady Golder's captivating teaching and speaking style has drawn many to Christ. Lady Golder attributes all of her success to the Lord, strong family support, and hard work.
